Broad Street Station,
Philadelphia.

February 29, 1904.

Rev. Samuel J. Blum, D.D.

Nazareth, Pa.

Dear Dr. Blum:

I enclose you herewith clerical order for 1904, for the Pennsylvania Railroad and affiliated lines east of Pittsburg, Erie and Buffalo, as per your request of February 24th.

Now that you have a first class hotel, there is a better inducement for me to occasionally visit the old town, and I hope during the Summer to do so.

I am very glad to hear of the continued success of Nazareth Hall, and I want to thank you for the copy of the "Hall Boy," which you sent me some time ago. When the catalogue is issued I would like to have a copy of it.

Very truly yours,

Enclosure.

