To The Henrys

Sofeni clara brother +
Robt. family

I have only just finished a letter to Emily & therefore perhaps she as well Enid & family for will not have the opportunity of hearing the letter though I wish you could read it & perhaps she is child or Baillon though I hope not before the bad weather sets in and I know she will be happier when you folks gather. I envy you though as a family for enjoy life in every climate Winter or Summer but as this seems your year and we assemble we will make a there for I enjoy them and many folks - Jim Harvey Robs - Jimmy folks and then - company keeps and family Jimmy - Mrs M and Jim brother - was full of fun and certainly she enjoy enjoyed making her father's old and dear heart's. I mean old in the sense of time's. Must stop

Have been interrupted terribly -

I will conclude today. It beautiful Sunday day & warm. I am awaiting the plumbers to make by new lines & Xmas gift from Frank & light connection & gas & finding one like I have been using for four years only modern & light without flue ones & bother of lot. I am sure I will enjoy it: Monday the 7th - I had my 76th birthday & celebrated Sunday 6th when Frank could be home. Only - Frank Mrs M & her friend and myself now he enjoyed to be with them. I hope Jim entire family will keep well & have a happy time together. I meant to write a separate letter to Mrs Rob but - I cannot - So please read this to her & express my feeling to her and family and enquire about and read Rob's letter - written to his dear friend Ed -

I know just how lonely Jimmy & family feel and Jim likewise. Read Emily's letter & you will know how I feel. I am sure she must be for they were lovers always & how proud she was to call Jim hers - & all she could be.

I had a great admiration for Jim's father when I met him. His quiet and dignified way was indeed felt by all who met him. Of Jim's mother I have simply heard and am sure I would also have been impressed having left such a dear Jemmy to be proud of.
I hope you will accept these few words of my own in response to the card with Sabbatical Sentiment with love and the deepest sympathy & hope
