Schoeneck April 9th 1865.

Rite of confirmation administered to Robert William Henry.

Benediction

And the very God of peace sanctify you wholy, and I pray God your whole spirit, and soul, and body, be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. Faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it 1 Thes. 5, 2324. Hymn 393. 6. Dear Savior &c. My dear Robert, may this day be blessed to your heart as long as life exists in you. May the benediction pronounced over you, rest upon you to the end of your sojourn here below, and may you lead a life worthy of your high vocation, and may it tend to the honor and praise of your Savior, to whom you have given yourself, with soul and body. Remember the high price with which you are purchased to God! May your confirmation Hymn be deeply impressed upon your heart, & keep you humble. May the instruction preparatory to your confirmation, be a source of edification through life, & may the Lord lead, & keep you blameless. And finally, may I —, after time is exchanged for eternity, meet you, & see you seated at the right hand of God! Yea, may you so run your race, that the Savior whom you now serve, will say: well done good and faithful servant. And may I see you crowned with the golden crown of Glory, & spend a happy eternity with you is my most fervent & sincere prayer. Remember the words & prayers of your Aff. Pastor
