She well knew, she said, that she had nothing of merit to offer save only Jesus' blood & righteousness, on which she confidently relied for gracious acceptance by him as a poor sinner. She bore witness to this again only a few hours before her end, which came on the 8th of this month, at 4 o'clock in the morning, peacefully & almost imperceptibly. Her age was 65 years, 6 weeks, & 4 days."——
