Dear Dr. Blumm:

Mr. E. E. Reindollar, Taneytown, Md.,, a warm personal friend of mine and who has had four daughters in our institution as students, the last one of whom will graduate in June of this year, asked me some time ago to recommend a school for his oldest son, Eugene. I advised him to send him to a boy's Military School, and suggested and recommended your institution. He stopped here on his way to your place with his wife and his son and afterward wrote me that Eugene was with you and was very much pleased.

Mr. Reindollar is a man of considerable means and the most prominent and influential man in his section of Maryland. He has another boy, younger than the one now with you. He has no more daughters, I am sorry to say, and hence must send his children now elsewhere for their education. I am exceedingly anxious, as you will readily understand, not only that Eugene shall be well cared for and well pleased with your institution, but I am particularly anxious that his parents shall be accorded every courtesy by you and your institution.

It was my pleasure to go through your institution a year ago in company with Dr. Koch of your town. I was pleased with what I saw and heard. I think it was Prof. Gram who showed me through.

If Eugene Reindollar is well pleased with your institution, other Boys from his section of the state will come to you. Mr. Reindollar's patronage and influence will be worth a great deal to any institution. Any courtesy that you may show him through his son will be most highly appreciated not only by him but by me also. Having had full confidence in your institution I did not hesitate to recommend it to Mr. Reindollar.

With best wishes I remain,

Yours very cordially,

E. E. Campbell
